Dear Reverend Father Director

Just wanted you to know that St Joseph has helped us again last year with selling our home and this year with selling our business. I think you'll get a kick out of my story

My daughters friend told us about St Joseph selling homes,(it worked we sold it in 3mos) but she didn't know about using it to sell a business. She called back told me to bury it like we did with house, told her no where to bury it, She said hide it in one of the four front windows facing out.

I followed her instructions 3 weeks went by no came to see our business my daughter's friend said to move the statue to another window and attach a business card to it. I did with a rubber band. Still no one came

Our daughter called ask how it was going told her no one has come, she asked about the statue and how I put the business card on it. She started screaming at me WHAT ARE YOU CRAZY YOU ARE CHOKING ST JOSEPH WITH THE RUBBER BAND AROUND THE BUSINESS CARD. TAKE IT OFF !!!

So I took off the rubber band and glued the business card to St Josephs Hand, while still continuing to say the prayers.

Well one week later we had a buyer again it only took 3 months to sell we closed on our business on Sept 29th

When I told our daughter and her friend that it worked they said they had a confession to make that they made it all up about the business card in hand and rubber band being to tight etc. I told them the joke was on them because every day I prayed in my petition to St Joseph to help us sell our business to heal her sick father and to bring the troops home safely, I told her it was the power of prayer not their instructions that sold the store

Enclosed is a check for $ 500 for you to share in our good fortune and to help with the building of your Shrine to St Joseph

Enclosed is a gift from my heart to build a shrine in honor of St. Joseph.

He has answered my prayer, the sale of my home, which I was very close to losing. There is much more to this story, but St Joseph has given me a new start. I will never forget and always honor, love and devote my prayers to St Joseph.

Dear Rev Father,

Before we put our house a Mother / Daughter up for sale in June 2005, we painted the whole house inside and out ,redid the driveway, added stone walks and more flowers for curb appeal plus kept the pool cleaned and opened so it would be so inviting for the buyers coming in the summer.

The first month we had 18 people but no was interested we heard all the excuses ,house to small apartment for Mom beautiful but she can't go up steps, don't want pool etc. The second month we had 2 couples also not interested.

My daughter has a friend who works with her ,she told her to tell me about St Joseph Looked high and lo to find a St Joseph statue all the religious stores were sold out, guess they knew what I didn't.

Well to make a long story short, Aug. I buried St Joseph 12" deep in front yard facing front just like instructions said . I prayed every night for a buyer because we already put a down payment on a home being built in FL.

For 3 weeks NOT ONE BUYER came it was weird.

Then on a Friday in Sept my son said the realtor was bringing a man who lived in Queens to see the house ,he came and loved it but had to bring his wife to see it .The next day he brings his wife she loves it ,she says has to bring my Mom to see if she likes it and can go up the stairs to the second floor apartment. Sun Mom ,Daughter & Son-in-law look around for TWO hrs and leave.

The wait begins and finally Thurs we get and offer and counter offer and we finally go to contact .The odds of this sale going thru were slim to none ,the young couple only put down 8,000.we didn't think they would ever get a mortgage for the balance but, I guess St Joseph was helping them too

FINALLY we closed on the house DEC 9th, I went back to the hose to make last minute clean up and to unbury St Joseph, I knew where he was I put a stone on top where I buried him. The ground was frozen and hard, we used a pick, got down the 12" and.... NO ST JOSEPH kept digging and digging could not find him. Called my daughter her friend said DON'T dig anymore, He must want to be there to protect the new owners So there St Joseph stays, God Bless Him and you Enclosed please accept this check for $500.00 for the good fortune St Joseph gave us.

Dear Rev. Father,

Enclosed you will find our check in the amount of $100.00 as our thank you for St. Joseph helping us to sell our home. Let us share this with you.

We purchased St. Joseph on a Sunday and put him in our prayer garden next to Jesus and said our petition prayer for the sale of our home. Well, the very next day we had people look at our house and make an offer – we were overwhelmed to say the least. However, two days before we were close on the loan, the people backed out because the people buying their house back out – we were devastated because our house was not shown for 6 weeks. Anyway we had already committed to and signed a loan for the home we were planning to purchase. But we prayed with St. Joseph and asked him for guidance and not to be so discouraged – even though it meant we were going to have to make 2 house payments. Anyway when we went to prepare the home we were buying, we found out it had many things wrong with it that we were not prepared for and would take us approximately 6 weeks to make the house livable – so St. Joseph new we needed to have both houses.

We fixed up the new house and moved in June 4th. My former boss, who had grown up in the town where our house for sale, heard that we were selling and contacted us and he and his wife just loved the house and bought our home. We were thrilled -- as it is so nice to know someone will love and take care of the home like we did and we are so thankful and know now that is why St. Joseph had us wait to find just the "right buyer".

Thank you so very much!

Dear Rev. Father Director,

Please find enclosed a check sent in our appreciation of the St. Joseph home sales kit we used recently. Although we are not of Catholic faith, we do hold awareness of the value of prayer and the essence of an ever-present higher power as represented by Christ.

Here is our story regarding the stature of St. Joseph... We were selling our home in Macomb, Michigan. We had listed it in February 2006 and our real estate agent conducted multiple open houses. Nearly 60 families showed no offers or interest after viewing. Other houses of same design and value had been listed for over a year.

My wife heard about the St. Joseph stature and she obtained one from a Hallmark store. She buried the statue in the front yard. We chatted by phone during April as I was at another location (present home in East Tawas, MI) doing remodeling work. Nothing happened.

Then my wife found out from her daughter that possibly the position of the statue should be different. Initially she buried it head side up facing the house. On a Tuesday evening she dug up the statue and reburied it upside down facing away from the house. On the following Wednesday our real estate agent called to say that a potential buyer expressed an interest in making a purchase offer on the house. Yes, within 24 hours we had an offer presented, which we accepted. Closing date was set for August 1st, 2006. Other homes in the same neighborhood are still up for sale with seemingly minimal interest by the potential buying public.

On the day of closing my wife (hesitantly) dug up the statue before we went to closing meeting at 10:00am. At closing there was a setback regarding the buyer's transfer of funds. However, that got resolved by 6:00pm, after we had left for our northern Michigan home. Our monies were finally received on Thursday, August 3rd. And so we are complete with this sale. We credit our sale experience to the focus of the St. Joseph statue as an aid to our own beliefs and faith.

Our St. Joseph statue now resides in a special place at our newly remodeled home in East Tawas, Michigan.

Please use the enclosed money for helping build a shrine in honor of St. Joseph.

Warmest regards,

dee

Rev. Father Director,

This letter is a testimony of the power and/or prayers to the Statue of Saint Joseph regarding the sale of my home. I listed my home in Greeley, Colorado on Tuesday July 18, 2006 and accepted an offer on Monday August 21, 2006. It was not the full price, however, the market at this time is defiantly not a sellers market and many homes in the area have been on the market for several months.

The statue was given to me by a close friend and I used the prayer at least twice daily and at various times throughout the day in passing thoughts. Prayer is not a new experience for me as I have prayed daily, usually several times, for several years, however, this is the first time I used the assistance of a Saint to intercede on my behalf. It has provided me with a new spiritual growth, which I greatly appreciate.
